

Jessica is an ultra-realistic android, and she speaks in a normal speaking voice.

Jessica: “Yeah, is that her?”

Pronunciation: Bree

Jessica: “Hi Brea!”

Jessica: “Ha ha! That’s okay. I like electronic circuitry as much as Sara does. It’s sexy.”

Jessica: “I remember how you were saving up for a CyberFem model. You wanted one way back when we were at Moon University.”

Jessica: “How could you afford her and all those other robots on your wages?”

Jessica: “But still... space-junk collectors never get as wealthy as you seem to be. I hope you don’t mind me saying.”

Jessica: “That doesn’t sound right, but I guess I know what you mean.”

Jessica: “You should come visit me on Earth again soon.”

Jessica: “You’re right, that would be fun... but... well... I can’t afford to go to the Moon.”

Jessica: “Okay beautiful. Keep in touch, alright?”

Jessica: “Oh, you and your fembots!”

Jessica: “Hm hm... Bye!”
